HOW TO QUALIFY

By the last day of the Application Period, you must meet the criteria in either Section A or Section B below.

Section A

- A1. Five years of satisfactory full-time experience as a journey-level mechanic (i.e., fully trained, proficient, knowledgeable, experienced, and competent) performing electrical, HVAC or electro-mechanical work.

Section B

- B1. Three years of satisfactory full-time experience as a journey-level mechanic performing the work described in "A1" above that were obtained after one of the following:
- I. Two years of satisfactory full-time experience as a mechanic's helper, apprentice or trainee performing or assisting in the work described above; or
  - II. Graduation from a recognized trade school or technical school, approved by a state's Department of Education or comparable agency, with a major course of study in electrical, HVAC, electro-mechanical or a closely related field for at least 600 hours or more; or
  - III. Graduation from a vocational high school, approved by a state's Department of Education or comparable agency, with a major course of study in the trades described in "II" above or a closely related field; or
  - IV. Graduation from an accredited college or university with an AAS degree or higher in one of the trades described in "II" above or a closely related field.

The high school, vocational high school, technical school, or trade school must be approved by a State's Department of Education or a recognized accrediting organization. The college or university must be accredited by regional, national, professional or specialized agencies recognized as accrediting bodies by the U.S. Secretary of Education, and by the Council of Higher Education Accreditation (CHEA).

You may be given the structured interview before we verify your qualifications for this examination. You are responsible for determining whether you meet the qualification requirements for this examination prior to submitting the Application. If you are marked "Not Qualified," your application fee will not be refunded and you will not receive a score.

Foreign Education Fact Sheet (required only if you need credit for your foreign education for this examination): If you were educated outside the United States, you must have your foreign education evaluated to determine its equivalence to education obtained in the United States. The services that are approved to make this evaluation, as well as instructions on how to submit this evaluation are listed in the Foreign Education Fact Sheet included with your application packet. When you contact the evaluation service, ask for a "document-by-document" (general) evaluation of your foreign education.

REQUIREMENTS TO BE APPOINTED

Driver License Requirement: At the time of appointment you must have either (A) a Commercial Driver License (CDL) valid in the State of New York with no disqualifying restrictions that would prevent you from performing the duties of this title; or (B) a Motor Vehicle Driver License valid in the State of New York and a Learner Permit for a Class B CDL valid in the State of New York with no disqualifying restrictions that would prevent you from performing the duties of this title.

If you do not receive an Admission Letter at least 4 days before this date, you may obtain a duplicate letter at the MTA Exam Information Center (as indicated above). A paper copy of the Admission Letter is your ticket for admission to the test.

Applicants must keep their mailing address up to date. The address on file with the MTA Business Service Center may be used to mail correspondence, including the Admission Letter, to MTA employees. Please refer to the Correspondence section below for instructions on how to update your address and other contact information.

THE TEST

You will be given a structured interview comprised of two parts: a competitive knowledge-based interview and a qualifying supervisory abilities interview. A score of at least 70% is required to pass both of these interviews. Your score on these interviews will determine your place on the eligible list.

The competitive knowledge-based interview may include questions on the installation, troubleshooting, inspection, repair, testing and maintenance of facility equipment as it relates to the electrical, HVAC, plumbing, carpentry, masonry, painting and iron work trades, including tools and equipment used in these trades; general knowledge of facilities maintenance operations; safe and efficient work practices and procedures; and the forecasting of materials, tools and equipment requirements.

The qualifying supervisory abilities interview may include questions on the following abilities:

- Oral Comprehension -- Ability to understand spoken English words and sentences
- Oral Expression -- Ability to use English words or sentences in speaking so others will understand
- Planning and Organizing – Establishing a course of action for self and/or others to accomplish a specific goal; planning proper assignment of personnel and appropriate allocation of resources
- Delegation – Utilizing subordinates effectively; allocating decision-making and other responsibilities to the appropriate subordinates
